

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
WILLIAM CARROLL QUIGLEY

I, WILLIAM CARROLL QUIGLEY, of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all former Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore by me made.

FIRST; I direct my hereinafter named Executrix to pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses and I further direct that the amount of my funeral expenses, including the cost of the erection of a suitable marker or monument at my grave, shall be paid in the discretion of my Executrix, notwithstanding any present or future limitation of law thereon.

SECOND: I give and bequeath my 1950 Ford car, or any other automobile which I may own at the time of my death, to my son, DENIS CARROLL QUIGLEY, absolutely, provided that he be living at the time of my decease.

THIRD: All of the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever and howsoever situate, now owned or that which may be hereafter acquired by me, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, LILLIAN F. QUIGLEY, absolutely and in fee simple, provided that she be living at the time of my decease.

FOURTH: If my said wife does not survive me, then and in that event, I make the following disposition of my Estate:

William Carroll Quigley

a) I give and bequeath to my sons, DENIS CARROLL QUIGLEY and THOMAS FOX QUIGLEY, or the survivor of them, such of my household china, silver, furniture, pictures, household furnishings and effects, as they may select.

In order to determine the exact division of these items, the beneficiaries are to draw numbers to determine who has first choice, then they are to alternately make selections until all of the items are chosen. It is my intent that any and all items which can reasonable be construed as part of a set, be so construed and that such set be considered a single item.

b) 'All of the rest, residue and remainder of my Estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever and howsoever situate, now owned or that which may be hereafter acquired by me, I give, devise and bequeath to my hereinafter named Trustee, to be held by her in and upon the following TRUSTS, NEVERTHELESS, That is to say:

IN TRUST, to take charge of, manage and control, invest and reinvest the same, mortgage, pledge or hypothecate the same, giving to my said Trustee full power and authority to sell and dispose of the same, or any part thereof, at either public or private sale, or sales, without liability on the part of the purchaser, or purchasers, to see to the application of the purchase money, including the right in my said Trustee to create from time to time reserves necessary for the payment of taxes, assessments, repairs and other expenses in connection with said property, and also to do all such acts as may in her discretion be necessary for the beneficial care and management of my Estate and the administration of its affairs, as fully and as completely as I myself could do, if living, AND:

1. Divide said Trust into two equal shares and, until the termination thereof, add to the corpus of said Trust all surplus over and above the amounts required to administer said Trust.

2. If either or both of my sons, DENIS CARROLL QUIGLEY and THOMAS FOX QUIGLEY, have an aptitude for study, it is my desire that they be given the opportunity of attending an accredited college or university of their selection and that the Trust herein created for them be used for that purpose. Therefore, if said beneficiaries notify my Trustee of their desire to attend such college or university, or of their desire to enroll therein for additional or graduate work (and in the sole discretion of my Trustee has an aptitude for study), my said Trustee is hereby authorized and directed to pay from the income and/or corpus of the Trust set up for such beneficiary:

a) All tuition and other charges normally made by the accredited college or university which said beneficiary may select and enroll as a student. The official receipts rendered by said college or university for such payments made by my Trustee shall be a full release, discharge and acquittance of my said Trustee from all further liability and accountability in connection therewith.

b) Such sum, or sums, as may in the discretion of my Trustee be required for said beneficiary's living expenses while attending said college or university.

William Carroll Quigley

In making payments under this Article
FOURTH, my Trustee, in her sole discretion, may make said payments of income and/or principle directly to the beneficiary or beneficiaries and his or their receipt therefor, notwithstanding their minority, shall be a full release, discharge and acquittance of my Trustee from all further liability and accountability in connection with such payment.

3. If either or both of my said beneficiaries:
(a) do not desire to attend an accredited college or university, or (b) do not desire to enroll therein for additional or graduate work, or (c) in the sole discretion of my Trustee does not have an aptitude for study, or (d) after attending such college or university, should be dropped for insufficient scholarship or for any other reason, I direct my said Trustee to add all surplus income received thereafter to the corpus of the Trust for such beneficiary until the youngest beneficiary attains (or would have attained) the age of Twenty Five (25) years.

4. When my younger son attains (or would have attained) the age of Twenty Five (25) years, I authorize and direct my said Trustee to pay over, transfer and deliver to my two beneficiaries, their respective shares of the corpus and accumulated income, if any, of the Trust then remaining in her possession.

5. If either of the beneficiaries of said Trust should die before the final distribution of the Trust Estate, my said Trustee shall deliver his share to the remaining beneficiary named in this Article FOURTH and subject to the same terms and conditions as set forth with respect to the several provisions made herein for him.

William Carroll Lingley

FIFTH: In the event either of the beneficiaries of the Trust hereinbefore created should be in pressing want, or should be subject to an unforeseen emergency, or should require additional funds for proper maintenance or support, my Trustee may allocate as much of the accumulated income and/or corpus of the Trust hereinbefore created for such beneficiary as she, in her sole discretion, may deem sufficient for the relief of any pressing want, emergency, maintenance or support.

In making payments under this Article FIFTH, my Trustee, in her sole discretion, may make such payments of income and/or corpus directly to the beneficiary or beneficiaries and his or their receipt therefor, notwithstanding their minority, shall be a full release, discharge and acquittance of my Trustee from all further liability and accountability in connection with such payment.

SIXTH: I direct that no part of the corpus or income of the Trust hereinbefore created for the benefit of the beneficiaries named therein shall ever be liable in any way for any debts that either of them may at any time contract, or for the debts that either of them may have contracted, and shall never be liable for any other claim of any kind against them.

SEVENTH: My Executrix and/or Trustee are hereby authorized and directed to pay out of the income of my Estate, or from the corpus thereof, all inheritance, succession, estate or other taxes which may be imposed upon the beneficiaries named in this my Last Will and Testament.

EIGHTH: In making investments, my Trustee shall not be bound by any rule of Court or law governing the investment of Trust Funds, now or hereafter in force in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere.

NINTH: If my said wife and I should die in a common disaster, or under such circumstances which makes it difficult or impossible to determine which shall have died first, my said wife shall be deemed to have predeceased me.

TENTH: I hereby nominat, constitute and appoint my said wife, LILLIAN F. QUIGLEY, as and for the Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament.

In the event my said wife predeceases me, or in the event she shall in any way be unable to assume or continue the duties of Executrix, or in the event of her death after assuming such duties, then and in any of those events, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my mother-in-law, CATHERINE FOX, as and for the Executrix and/or Trustee of this my Last Will and Testament.

I direct that no security shall be required of either my said wife or my said mother-in-law for the faithful performance of the trust in them reposed and I hereby authorize my said Executrix, in her sole discretion, to sell at public or private sale, or sales, or to mortgage such part, or parts, of my Estate as may be necessary for the purposes of administration, including the payment of debts, taxes and making distribution.

William Carroll Quigley

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal at the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 7th day of June, 1960.

William Carroll Quigley
also known as Carroll Quigley (SEAL)

THEN and THERE signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Testator, WILLIAM CARROLL QUIGLEY, as and for his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.

Grover L. Hugel residing at 10108 Green Forest Drive
Hillandale Forest, Silver Spring, Maryland
Walter H. Hayes, Jr. residing at 1427 Kanawha Street, West Hyattsville, Maryland.
Robert C. Antlefe residing at 108A, 800 S. Washington St.
Alexandria, Virginia